LETTER V.

An Atheist — Slight sketch of the process by which a man in the humbler order of abilities and attainments may become one ..... p. 2

LETTER VI.

The influence of Religion counteracted by almost all other influences—Pensive reflections on the imperfect manifestation of the Supreme Being— on the in-efficacy of the belief of such a being— on the strangeness of that inefficacy— and on the debasement and infelicity consequent on it — Happiness of a devout man ..... P. 33

LETTER VII.

Self-knowledge being supposed the principal object in writing the memoir, the train of exterior fortunes and actions will claim but a subordinate notice in it— If it were intended for the amusement of the public, the writer would do well to fill it rather with incident and action— Yet the mere mental history of some men would be interesting to reflecting readers— of a man, for example, of a speculative disposition, who has passed through many changes of opinion— Influences that warp opinion — Effects of time and experience on the notions and feelings cherished in early life — Feelings of a sensible old man on viewing a picture of his own mind, drawn by himself when he was young— Failure of excellent designs ; disappointment of sanguine hopes — Degree of explicitness required in the record—Conscience — Impudence and canting false pretences of many writers of " confessions "— Rousseau ..... „p. 39

ESSAY II.

ON DECISION OF CHARACTER.

LETTER L

Examples of the distress and humiliation incident to an irresolute mind— Such a mind cannot be said to belong to itself—Manner in which a man of decisive spirit deliberates, and passes into action—Caesar—Such a spirit prevents the fretting away, in harassing alternations of will, of the animated feelings required for sustaining the vigour of action—Averts impertinent interference —Acquires, if free from harshness of manner, an undisputed and beneficial ascendency over associates—Its last resource, inflexible pertinacity—Instance in a man on a jury .....p.

LETTER II.

Brief inquiry into the constituents of this commanding quality—
Physical constitution—Possibility, nevertheless, of a firm mind in a feeble body—Confidence in a man's own judgment—This an uncommon distinction—Picture of a man who wants it—This confidence distinguished from obstinacy—Partly founded on experience—Takes a high tone of independence in devising scheme*
—Distressing dilemmas .....* .....p.
